EDMONTON BULLETIN, JULY 26TH, 1894.
CRIMINAL LIBEL.

On Tuesday, July 24th, before C. W. Sutter, J. P. the case of Regina vs. Milne, for criminal libel against H. Wilson, J. P., was continued. Mervyn Mackenzie appeared for the prosecution and S. S. Taylor, for the defence.

H. B. Round sworn. Was in charge of BULLETIN for some days prior to June 18th 1894; remembers document produced (exhibit "B") being brought into the office; Mr. Milne the defendant brought it; there was a letter accompanying it.

Question. By whom was the letter signed?
Mr. Taylor objected that letter must be produced if possible.

Objection sustained.
No conversation took place at the time I received the document; caused it to be inserted in the issue of June 18th.

Cross-examined by Mr. Taylor. This (exhibit "B") is the document that was produced to me in the BULLETIN office; do not know the handwriting; I inserted it by reason of the letter accompanying it and not by reason of the man who brought it, bringing it to me; heard Col. Jarvis say he would make that that saw wood for the rest of his days. Am familiar with the contents of exhibit "B."

Q.—If it be true that Apoux was not a vagrant and if it refers to Col. Jarvis and H. Wilson, you consider it was a fair comment on their action?

Mr. Mackenzie objected.

Objection overruled.

Mr. Mackenzie asked that his objection to all evidence that might be tendered to show the truth or to try to justify the libel be noted.

Witness replies. It appeared to me at the time to be a fair comment, but not upon the action of any particular parties. It did not appear to me that Col. Jarvis and H. Wilson were being attacked by the document when I published it.

Q.—If Col. Jarvis and H. Wilson were attacked by this document and they committed that boy for vagrancy when he was not a vagrant, is that a fair comment on such unjustifiable conduct?

Article I consider that it was a fair comment.

Q.—Do you consider that it is relevant to the public interest that the subject should be publicly discussed and that such public discussion is for the public benefit?

Answer—"Yes."

Mr. Round stood aside to be recalled in case the letter handed in with exhibit "B" was found.

Mr. Mackenzie put in as exhibit "C" the original information, depositions and conviction in the case of Regina vs. H. Apoux tried before Col. Jarvis and H. Wilson, J. P.'s and announced that this closed the case for the prosecution, subject to proving after adjournment that Mr. Milne wrote the letter or caused it to be published.

Mr. Taylor was allowed to call Rev. Father Fouquet without prejudice to his right to argue that no case had been made out by the prosecution.

Rev. Leon Fouquet sworn. Until lately was in charge of the Roman Catholic mission at Edmonton; knew the boy Apoux and his father; the boy stopped with me shortly before he died and after his father went down the river; the father caused that I should keep the boy to prepare him for confirmation, with the understanding that he could go back to Mallette's hotel South Edmonton if he wanted to.

Q.—Had you any conversation with Mallette before and since the death of Apoux and also before Apoux was convicted of vagrancy?

A.—Yes. On a Sunday morning I was sent for by Mallette and went to visit the boy as a priest; he was ill with epileptic fits, and I told Mallette that he should not have him there, as if he had a fit before the children it might affect them; Mallette asked me if he could have him placed in the St. Albert hospital; I told him to telephone and find out if there was room; he asked me if I could take him and I answered "No" if I was already attending one sick man and with my own had health I could not attend another; I could not go to see him on the following day (Monday) because I was sick, but I enquired about his health and heard that he was all right, running about the town; the next thing I heard was that he was in jail at Edmonton, meaning the police barracks, under arrest for vagrancy; I attended him there as a priest and administered the sacraments; I believe that he could not live. He was of poor but respectable family in France and had only been a few months in this country; think he could speak very little English; never spoke English to him; it is my impression based on 40 years experience as a priest in cases of homesickness, and my knowledge of the French character.

Q.—When the arrest of the boy and his imprisonment hastened his death, vagrancy is felt to be a far greater disgrace by a man from France than it is considered in America. When I held a conversation with Mallette he was partially intoxicated, he said to me "From what I see in the papers and what I have heard, you blame me for Apoux' death." I replied, "I blame the J. P.'s more than you. I don't blame you for trying not to keep Apoux with your children, but if instead of getting him sent to jail you had sent word to me I would have tried to get some one to take care of him; I understood Mallette went to the J. P. for the purpose of getting the boy put somewhere that he would be taken care of; he was sick; I did not understand that Mallette went to the J. P. because the boy was loose, idle or disorderly but simply because he wanted the boy taken care of on account of his sickness; don't remember any other conversations with Mallette."

Q.—If the J. P.'s, or one of them understood before they committed the boy that the purpose was to provide him with care or protection, and that by finding him guilty of vagrancy and committing him for such that they acted in a proper manner? Answer—"Decidedly I think not."

If there were other means of taking care of the boy I think it was inhuman, but I understood there were no other means known to them; I do not approve of it, but could not call it inhuman, because other men may not look upon the same as I do. Consider exhibit "B" a fair comment upon the matter. If written by one who has the same feelings as myself; Apoux' father wrote to me from Field B. C., and I advised him to come here; he came with the intention of settling on a farm; not having sufficient money to settle on a farm he went to work on the river; I know he had money; the boy was still under his charge, as a son, and he was maintaining and caring for him most carefully.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mackenzie. The boy was left at Mallette's and came from Mallette to me; he took nostalgia (homesickness) very bad; I sent him to Dr. Royal; he was with me two or three weeks; he told me he lost his blankets while with me, or two or three days before he left.

Q.—Had the loss of the blankets anything to do with the boy leaving you?

A.—The boy accused the mission brothers of stealing the blankets; I told him not to say so, and to "move around or your nostalgia will get worse" shortly afterwards he said he would go to Mallette's, and I said "You may go, my boy, for I think the change may do you good, know nothing of Apoux' antecedents, before last March; remember when I saw the boy at Mallette's telling Mallette that he had better give the boy to the 'gouvernement' meaning the town authorities; I spoke to Mallette in French; that word used in that connection means to a Frenchman the town authorities; I believe I mentioned the mayor of Edmonton, and that he was a very kind man, but cannot swear to it; my opinion is that the boy had homesickness, which increased when he was in jail; am not a medical man, have not had any medical training in a college, but have had 40 years experience with sickness, and received instructions from many doctors in France and in America to help me in my mission work; I practiced medicine for 30 years where there were no doctors.

Constable Cowan sworn. Saw the boy Apoux in custody of Constable Nunley; told me he was under commitment for vagrancy; noticed something the matter with him; I spoke to him; he looked stupid but cannot say whether it was because of lack of knowledge of English or the disease from which he afterwards appeared to be suffering; Nunley searched his person; the lad then went into the kitchen; I heard a commotion in the kitchen and went out and found Apoux in a fit; Nunley said he had been having them all day; I said "This is no place for this sort of fellow," and asked who put him under arrest; he replied it was not an arrest, but a summons had been issued and he had to do as the magistrate told him; the lad was taken upstairs; I reported the matter to Insp. Snyder as I thought the lad was going to die; Mr. Snyder came over at once and Dr. Braithwaite was telephoned for; I did all I could for the boy until the doctor arrived; when he arrived he gave instructions as to what was to be done; The boy was brought here on the 13th and died at midnight on the 14th; At first the fits only came on every two hours, afterwards they came on every half hour; I was not present when he died; Dr. Braithwaite and Watson were with him.

Cross examined by Mr. Mackenzie. Dr. Braithwaite was called in the same night the boy arrived; he was in attendance and saw Apoux several times; he gave him every attention possible.

H. B. Round recalled by Mr. Mackenzie. The letter now produced signed "A. Milne" accompanied the correspondence marked exhibit "B" (letter marked exhibit "D").

Mr. Taylor objected to the letter being received as proof of Milne's handwriting or as attaching the offence to Milne until the handwriting was proven. Objection noted.

The letter was handed to me with the correspondence by defendant Milne; the letter was in an envelope but do not think the correspondence was; it is the custom of editors not to insert anonymous articles unless accompanied by the name of the writer; would not have inserted the correspondence if it had not been accompanied by the letter.

Cross-examined by Mr. Taylor. Mr. Milne advertises in the BULLETIN from time to time; he may have written other letters to the BULLETIN; don't know his handwriting.

Mr. Mackenzie asked to be sworn.

Mr. Taylor objected on the ground that Judge Rouleau had ruled not to admit an advocate's evidence on behalf of his client.

Mr. Mackenzie said it was an exceptional course but he had a right to give evidence.

Evidence refused.

Dr. Braithwaite sworn. Am a regularly qualified physician practising in Edmonton; was sent for the night the boy Apoux was brought to the barracks; found the boy suffering from the effects of a fit of epilepsy; was putting up some medicine and was asked by the boy had another fit; I gave him medicine and left orders with the picket what to do during the night; was sent for next morning about 10 o'clock; he was much worse than on the night before; was having fits at intervals of about 20 minutes; epilepsy might be caused by hereditary tendency, accident in childhood such as a fall that would injure the nervous system or spinal chord, by night, by interference with the duties of some of the organs; epileptic fits are not necessarily incurable; consider that epileptic fits caused by sudden fright might be brought on under the same conditions; believe that epileptic fits are a nervous disease; think that fright would aggravate epilepsy; could not say that the boy was suffering from fright when I first saw him; at the time I expressed my opinion to Mr. Snyder that the confinement with police watching him might have brought on these fits, to which he was subject.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mackenzie.

Q.—Will you pledge your professional reputation to the statement that you have made that fright may bring on an epileptic fit in an ordinarily healthy person?

A.—Under certain limitations it might; for instance a child in feeding.

Q.—In an ordinarily healthy child ten or twelve years of age do you think that a fright would cause an epileptic fit?

A.—A severe fright or a severe shock might in my opinion do so. I attended the boy and he received every reasonable attention that could be afforded him; I am certain the police did all in their power to carry out my instructions and that their treatment of the boy was gentle; the boy's father was with him during the last four or five hours of his illness.

Dr. J. D. Harrison sworn. Am a duly qualified medical practitioner; epilepsy is a disturbance to the nervous system due to different causes; hereditary influences may be an important part, and there are such epilepsy will be brought on by causes that otherwise would not bring it on; injuries to the head or brain or spinal cord are causes; fright is an undoubted cause and there are other causes; when caused by fright the nervous and physical condition of the man are very important elements in inducing epilepsy; on a person subject to epilepsy a fright tends to aggravate these, the cause being the exhaustion to the nervous system; nervous excitement may produce the same effect; would consider the removal of a patient suffering from epilepsy from his home to a barracks very unfortunate.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mackenzie. When I say nervous strain will superinduce a fit I mean intense strain and its consequent effect on the general health; when I speak of fright I mean an unusual and severe mental shock; I am an experienced general of about 14 was in a carriage with a runaway horse, the horse was stopped without any injury to the driver or girl; the day after admission to the hospital she had epileptic fits and within a month she had as high as 120 fits in a day; there was no obtainable history of hereditary influence or injury.

Insp. Snyder sworn. Am in charge of the Edmonton post, N.W.M. Police; saw the boy Apoux when he was brought to the barracks under warrant of commitment issued by Col. Jarvis and H. Wilson, J. P.'s, for vagrancy; first saw the boy on the evening immediately after his arrest; he was then apparently all right; next saw him about three hours afterwards; he did not seem ill; from this time until about 20 hours afterwards; his father was here towards the latter end of his sickness; I sent for the father; he was found, I think, on the Saskatchewan engaged in mining; gold; do not know if the father had means; do not know if the father knew the boy was in prison till he was sent for; under the circumstances he could not have known the boy should be left on the street in that condition.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mackenzie. As soon as I knew the boy was ill I procured medical attendance, and until the time of his death he received every possible attention; there were two doctors present the greater part of the time; his father came here during the afternoon and was with him to the time of his death, but came shortly after midnight.

Joseph Brunelle sworn. Keep the Columbia House, Edmonton; knew Apoux while he was boarding at my place; knew his father both before and after the boy's death; the father went down the river to wash gold; he paid his own board and his son's; his son was healthy; while at my place the boy appeared healthy, took his meals regularly and played with the other boys; did not have any fits while at my house; never heard that he was subject to fits; the boy was at my place for some days while his father was out in the country; after the boy died I conversed with Mr. Mallette about him; he blamed the J. P.'s for saying he did not do right in having the boy arrested; I told him I never blamed him for this, I had only said that if I had been in his place I would have taken the boy and turned him to the priest's house; then he told me that as he had a family and was keeping hotel he could not possibly keep the boy and that he had spoken to one of the mounted police about taking him away; the policeman replied that he had nothing to do with it; but finally the policeman replied "I will go and see what Mr. Jarvis thinks about it." He said that he and Mr. Mallette said "I was very glad they were going to take him off my hands." He said "I do not understand the law of this country and I supposed it was all right. I did not know they were going to make a prisoner of him." I replied that I did not know anything about that. I was blaming him for not taking the boy over to Father Fouquet, and had not mentioned these things he told me before.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mackenzie. Apoux was boarding with me about three weeks before he went down the river; I know he had some money because he loaned money to partners; they had an outfit to work gold; do not know what money he had when he came there.

Case adjourned until Tuesday forenoon next to secure the evidence of Apoux senior.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

At the invitation of a committee appointed by the Lacombe Union Sunday school, a good number of delegates from various Sunday schools, met in Lacombe on Thursday, the 19th inst., and organized the "Union Sunday School Convention of Northern Alberta." The preliminaries for organization were attended to in the forenoon. In the afternoon, when a large number of delegates was present, the organization was completed and the balance of the afternoon was spent in the discussion of practical topics in connection with Sunday school work. The ladies of Lacombe prepared and served a very creditable meal for those attending the convention in Johnson's hall. An evening session of great interest was then held from 7:30 till about 9:30. Several questions of deep interest to Sunday school workers were discussed during the evening with great zest and in an excellent christian spirit. There were present representatives from Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Union Sunday schools. Calgary was represented in the person of Prof. D. H. Lent, the coming lecturer and stereoptician; and Edmonton by Pastor A. Macdonald of the Baptist church. The Lacombe friends deserve much credit for their pluck and enterprise in inaugurating this convention; and they and the friends who attended from a distance, have the joy of thinking of this initial meeting as a pleasing success. Next year in the second week in July, the convention have decided to meet at Red Deer, at the invitation of the friends from that place. Although a little farther removed from us, we trust Edmonton may next year be more largely represented than this, and perhaps that we may invite the convention to cross over the new bridge and hold its meetings in Edmonton in July 1896. A fuller and more detailed account of the organization and meetings of this convention will be forwarded later on for the columns of the BULLETIN, by the secretary of the convention and by order of the convention, hence the above brief notice will suffice for the present, by

It was also announced that two of the cattle examined by experts employed by commission of the board of agriculture, had been found to be infected with contagious pleuro pneumonia.

A dispatch to the London Times from Shanghai gives details regarding the news received there from Seoul, the capital of Corea, that the Japanese soldiers recently assaulted the British consul, which resulted in landing thirty blue jackets to guard the British legation. The consul was dragged fifty yards and was beaten by the Japanese soldiers, who used their fists and chairs. The consul's wife was thrown into a ditch. The British consul drew up a formal complaint and sent it to the Japanese minister, but the latter only sent a curt reply and made no apology.

WHEREAS it is expedient that there should be raised by the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton the sum of $6,255.00 to enable the Municipality to repay the amounts, with interest, borrowed by the Municipality for the several purposes mentioned below, that is to say:

(1) $2,770.85, being a further amount expended in addition to the amount realized from the sale of debentures issued for the purpose of enabling the Municipality to erect a fire hall, to purchase certain fire apparatus for the use of the Municipality, and to provide means for a suitable supply of water for the purpose of fire protection, and the sum of $158.77 for interest thereon to the 1st day of October, 1894; $273.13, being the amount expended for the purchase, surveying and fencing of a nuisance ground for the use of the Municipality and otherwise in connection therewith, and the sum of $14.50 for interest thereon to the 1st day of October, 1894; $1,571.25, being the amount expended for the purchase of land for the purpose of opening a public highway, and the sum of $47.75 for interest thereon to the 1st day of October, 1894; $890.00, being the amount expended for the purpose of obtaining a charter for a street railway for the benefit of the Municipality, and the sum of $28.47 for interest thereon to the 1st day of October, 1894, the eight preceding items making a total sum of $5,064.72.

(2) AND $803.50, being the amount expended for the purchase of furniture and office apparatus for the use of the Municipality, and the sum of $12.28 for interest thereon to the 1st day of October, 1894; $254.50, being the amount expended for and in connection with the improvement of streets and the laying of sidewalks not chargeable as a frontage tax, and the sum of $10.10 for interest to the said 1st day of October, 1894; and the two sums of $5,064.72 and $803.50 making a grand total the sum of $6,255.00.

AND WHEREAS the value of the rateable property in the Municipality, according to the last revised Assessment Roll, is $988,950.00;

AND WHEREAS the amount of the existing debt of the Municipality, other than current expenses and including the amount provided for in this By-law, is $46,215.95, whereof no part is in arrear, and whereof $45,150.26 is principal and $1,065.72 is interest;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to borrow the said sum of $6,255.00 by the issue of debentures, $5,064.72 of the principal whereof shall be repayable in twenty years and $803.50 of the principal whereof shall be repayable in ten years from the date on which this By-law takes effect, and which shall bear interest in the meantime payable half-yearly at the rate of six per cent. per annum;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the repayment of the principal sum in each case by the creation of an equal yearly sinking fund;

AND WHEREAS the annual special rate on the dollar required as being sufficient to pay the interest and to create the equal yearly sinking fund for the payment of the said sum of $5,064.72 is fifty-two one-hundredths of a mill;

AND WHEREAS the annual special rate on the dollar required as being sufficient to pay the interest and to create an equal yearly sinking fund for the payment of the said sum of $803.50 is eight and one-half one-hundredths of a mill;

Therefore the Mayor and Council of the Municipality of the Town of Edmonton in Council assembled enact as follows:

(1) This By-law is to take effect on the 1st day of October, 1894.

(2) The Mayor and Clerk of the Municipality may borrow on the credit of the Municipality the said sum of $5,064.72, and may issue debentures of the Municipality to that amount repayable within twenty years from the said 1st day of October, 1894, with interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable half yearly.

(6) All such debentures shall be of such denominations not being less than $100 as the Mayor and Clerk shall decide and shall be made payable at the Office of the Treasurer of the Municipality at Edmonton, Alberta, North-West Territories, and shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of the interest.

BOARD OF TRADE.

There was only a moderate attendance at the general meeting of the board of trade in the council chamber on Tuesday night, the president John Cameron in the chair.

Correspondence regarding the appointment of a judge of the supreme court for Edmonton was read. A verbal report was made by the secretary of the business transacted by the council since the last general meeting. The authorization of the formation of a district board of health was read, with M. McCauley, John Cameron, H. Wilson, and E. Brousseau as members, and Dr. Braithwaite as medical health officer.

The subject of freights to the coast was taken up and Mr. Lines gave a number of valuable facts and figures bearing on the question gathered by him during his recent trip west. Messrs Kinnaird, McCauley and Lines were appointed a committee on C. P. R. freight rates, with instructions to procure information and prepare a statement on the subject.

Messrs McCauley and McDougall moved that the president and secretary express the thanks of the board to the Hon. T. M. Daly, minister of interior, for his services in securing the appropriation for the bridge and that they urge on the government the necessity of commencing construction immediately.

The secretary was instructed to wire the minister of interior asking if arrangements could not be made to have the petroleum indications at Egg lake tested by Mr. Fraser before his proceeding to the Athabasca Landing.

Messrs McDonald and Lines moved that the board assure its co-operation to H. W. McKenney and the people of St. Albert in their desire to open up a wagon road to the Peace river country.

FROM GREAT SLAVE LAKE.

Sheridan Lawrence of the employ of the Church missionary society at Fort Resolution, arrived on Wednesday from the Landing on his way to visit relatives in the province of Quebec. Mr. Lawrence is a son of Henry Lawrence who is now farming extensively at Vermilion, Peace river, and went north in 1886, at the time that Messrs. E. J. and H. Lawrence took their steam saw mill, grist mill and thrasher to Vermilion. From Vermilion he went to Resolution on Great Slave lake to teach an Indian school and manage a small farm at that place for the C. M. S. During the past year he has been occupied in erecting a mission building and commencing cultivation at the mouth of Hay river, on the west shore of Great Slave lake, about thirty miles above the outlet of the lake by means of the McKenzie river, where a new mission is being established. There are at present some eight Indian families who have built houses and planted potatoes and barley at this point, intending to make it their home. The opportunity for farming is however, very limited. The past winter was favorable in the north, the cold not being more than ordinarily severe, deer and fish were plentiful and there was very little sickness amongst the Indians. Spring opened earlier than usual, but afterwards was cold and windy and backward. Potatoes were only coming through the ground on June 22nd, when he left. The winds cleared the ice from Slave lake earlier than usual, that is to say it was clear by June 18th, while frequently it is not clear until July 12th. The Wrigley arrived at Hay river from the Mackenzie on June 22nd. On the 23rd she passed Resolution and on the 25th reached Fort Smith on Great Slave river, the most southerly point on her route. R. Secord had just arrived at Resolution, all safe and well, when the Wrigley passed. Bishop Reeves of Mackenzie river diocese went by return trip of the Wrigley to Peel's river, the northern extreme of her route. At Fort Smith the potatoes were considerably further advanced than at Resolution. Although the date seems late for potatoes to be only so little advanced, Mr. Lawrence says that once they do start they grow so rapidly that they mature in good time in the fall. Two wood buffalo were killed near Fort Smith last winter. At Chipewyan there is a great deal of scarlet fever amongst the Indians. Dr. McKay in charge of Athabasca, H. B. district, lost an infant recently by the same disease. Mr. Lawrence leaves for the east on to-morrow's train.
